EDITOR'S NOTE

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE VARIOUS FIELDS OF THE LAW—
A SERVICE FOR RETURNING VETERANS—As a service to lawyers and law students who have been serving in our armed forces—many of them outside the country and unable to keep in touch with current developments in the various fields of law—the staff of the Review has arranged for publication in the Review of a series of comments which will present in systematic form the legal “news” of the past five years. Some of these comments are now in the process of preparation and will appear this fall. Others will be prepared and published during the coming year. Each comment, according to the plan, will contain a running account and comment on important cases, statutes, books, etc.

The comments already arranged for are as follows:

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

E. Blythe Stason,
Dean of the University of Michigan Law School

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Burke Shartel,
Professor of Law, University of Michigan Law School

CORPORATION LAW

Laylin K. James,
