NOTE AND COMMENT.

THE LAW SCHOOL.—Several changes in the personnel of the law faculty are to be noted. Dean Harry B. Hutchins, after serving with great success as Acting President of the University last year, has been elected as President to succeed Dr. James B. Angell, and has thus severed his active connection with the law school. Professor Henry M. Bates, who had in February presented to the Regents his resignation to take effect in June, and who had, while continuing his work in the law school, entered into the practice of law in Detroit, has been chosen as Dean and returns to enter on his new duties this fall. Professor James H. Brewster has taken a year's leave of absence. Mr. Victor R. McLucas, who graduated from the law school in 1905 and has since been practicing in Omaha, has accepted an assistant professorship, and will divide his time between the practice court and the work in practical conveyancing.

VALIDITY OF LEGISLATION LIMITING HOURS OF LABOR FOR WOMEN.—Public opinion and the development of social and economic thought are well read in the decisions of the courts. An excellent illustration of this is found in the
